

Job Description (m/f/d)

Company Overview

Jobliment specializes in connecting German companies with highly qualified international professionals, particularly from North Africa. With a comprehensive approach to recruitment and integration, we support companies and talent through all stages, from recruitment and cultural coaching to long-term integration and career development. With a special focus on the IT and engineering sectors, the Jobliment Academy ensures that talent not only gains the necessary professional qualifications but also the linguistic and cultural skills required for successful integration into the German job market.

1. German Language Instructor (Location: Morocco Casablanca or Rabat)

As a German language instructor, you will play a key role in preparing North African talent for integration into the German work environment. Based in Morocco, you will provide language instruction and cultural knowledge to prepare candidates linguistically and culturally for their life in Germany.

Responsibilities:

- Conduct German language courses focused on German proficiency, in line with the Jobliment Academy curriculum.
- Deliver intercultural training to familiarize participants with German workplace culture, including communication styles, work etiquette, and social norms.
- Utilize the Busuu language-learning platform to monitor students' progress through the dashboard, providing targeted feedback and support.

- Document participants' progress and engagement on our recruiting platform to assist in building a talent database for future placements.
- Coordinate workshops, group activities, and cultural exchange events to promote an understanding of German culture.

Requirements:

- Fluent German language skills and good command of English; knowledge of Arabic or French is an advantage.
- Experience in language instruction and intercultural training, ideally with a focus on German language and culture.
- Strong organizational and communication skills, with the ability to motivate and inspire learners.
